Lt. General Joseph F. Carroll, USAF
Director
Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Joe:

I have your letter of 2 December concerning NPIC and the personnel program there.

I appreciate your raising this subject. I have looked into it in some detail and believe it would be more useful all around to discuss this matter rather than try to reply by letter to the points you raise.

I will have my Executive Assistant, Henry Knoche, contact your Exec and work out arrangements for a meeting. Kirk, Ray Cline, Art Lundahl, and a couple of Art's senior administrative officers will join me in the meeting. Feel free to bring any of your officers with you.

Faithfully yours,

(Signature)

MEMORANDUM FOR: DDCI

A lengthy letter prepared by NPIC and approved by DDI in response to Joe Carroll's recent letter concerning the rotation matter in NPIC.

You may want to discuss the matter with Lundahl and Cline before sending the letter off, but the text as drafted gives you a fairly complete backgrounder on this subject.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence

1. General Carter has read the attached letter from General Carroll and he asks that a reply be prepared for his signature as soon as possible. General Carter also asks for the background on specific points raised in the Carroll letter. For example, he would like to know the answers to the following:

a. What is the nature of the personnel rotation referred to by Carroll? Is this rotation within NPIC or from NPIC to other components within the Agency?

b. General Carter is concerned about the implication of the 5th paragraph in the Carroll letter. Does this mean that there is a special enclave of PI experts at NPIC who only serve CIA needs?

2. In short, General Carter, in addition to requesting a response for his signature, asks what NPIC personnel programs are, and for a rationale of these programs.
